AUTUMN FALLS

October brings in slow cool winds, the perfect metaphor for the bustling year coming to an end. Unlike most countries, autumn in Singapore does not reveal itself in the form of ravishing hues of orange, but whispers through the breezes at night. Take time to stop and smell the roses, or orchids, at Gardens By The Bay, and revel in the atmosphere of relaxation. Adrenaline-lovers need not fret as Oktoberfest and Halloween festivities await right around the corner. Let the holiday mood take you where you want to go, the possibilities are endless.
